Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chairman of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn on November 15, 1992 as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's —are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yolk behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with a full gathered yolk behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is of the same style as the master's, but made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, Engineering or Architecture is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; and cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture.

Alumni Park

Weather permitting, today's Convocation ceremonies are being held outdoors in Alumni Park which was dedicated in 1992, at the initiative of the Carleton University Alumni Association, to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. The newly constructed arbour under which the Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chair of the Board of Governors and the faculty are seated is a generous gift from the Association. It provides a permanent stage for Carleton's Convocation ceremonies and other events such as theatrical productions, concerts, and the like. Future plans for the Park include an enhancement of the existing fountain area with the construction of a plaza and landscaping to open views to the Rideau River.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Arthur Kroeger, O.C., M.A., LL.D.

Dan Aykroyd

Dan Aykroyd, actor, writer, and director, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Literature, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Friday, June 17, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution to the performing arts as an actor, writer, and director of enormous range and talents."

Born on July 1, 1952 in Ottawa, Mr. Aykroyd studied for four years at Carleton University where he was actively involved with the Sock 'n' Buskin theatre group.

In 1972, he entered show business by producing, co-writing, and acting in a series of 15-minute comedy shows entitled A Change for a Quarter, for a private cable company. The same year, Mr. Aykroyd joined the famed Second City comedy troupe, performing with them in Chicago and Toronto until 1974. During this early period of his career, he co-wrote and co-starred in the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's television production Coming Up Rosie, and co-wrote and co-starred in his first feature film, Love at First Sight.

When he joined the cast and writing staff of the new Saturday Night Live in 1975, Mr. Aykroyd formed the now-famous Blues Brothers Band with John Belushi. The two recorded their Briefcase Full of Blues album in 1979, starred in the hit comedy feature The Blues Brothers, embarked on a 10-city tour, and recorded the Made in America album. The duo also appeared together in Steven Spielberg's 1941 and the Zanuck/Brown production of Neighbours.

Mr. Aykroyd's subsequent screen acting career has included starring roles in: Trading Places (with Eddie Murphy); Ghostbusters and Ghostbusters II (both of which he originated and co-wrote); Spies Like Us (again as originator and co-writer); and Dragnet (co-writer). Other films in which he has starred include Doctor Detroit, The Couch Trip, The Great Outdoors, My Stepmother is an Alien, and Loose Cannons, with guest appearances in Into the Night, Twilight Zone – The Movie, and Caddyshack II. In 1986, Mr. Aykroyd produced the feature film One More Saturday Night for tape and cable markets.

In 1990, Mr. Aykroyd was nominated for an Academy Award in the category of Best Supporting Actor for his portrayal of Boolie Werthan in Driving Miss Daisy.

In 1991, Mr. Aykroyd directed and starred in his first feature, Nothing But Trouble, with Chevy Chase and John Candy. Also, he starred in My Girl with Jamie Lee Curtis, MacCauly Culkin, and Anna Chlumsky for Columbia/Imagine. In the fall of 1992, he starred in the Universal feature film Sneakers with Robert Redford, Sidney Poitier, Ben Kingsley, and River Phoenix. In the winter of 1992, he portrayed legendary filmmaker Mack Sennett in the Richard Attenborough film, Chaplin.

Mr. Aykroyd co-wrote and starred in the 1993 Paramount feature The Coneheads. He has also completed three other feature films: My Girl 2; North; and Exit to Eden.
